Guaranteed positions available upon successful completion of a ten week full time, five days a week, some weekends and evening training programme. A pre-employment programme for Indigenous Australians that leads to permanent part time traineeships in the Western and Eastern Suburbs with one of the largest employers in Australia and includes future career opportunities.

Woolworths Limited is one of the largest employers in Australasia, with more than 190,000 team members working in stores, support offices and distribution centres across Australia and New Zealand. Woolworths Limited is committed to providing a work environment that is inclusive; where employees are treated with dignity, courtesy and respect.

Woolworths aim to place Indigenous Australians into long term sustainable employment over a two year period in various sites. There are various positions available, dependent on a number of factors including, sales growth, resignations, promotions and roster changes.

Woolworths aspires to have a minimum of 2 Indigenous Australians employed in their larger sites and Distribution Centre’s over this 2 year period. Woolworths currently has 55 Woolworths, 14 Big W stores and 2 Distribution Centres in South Australia.

First step: Please join us for an information session
Where: TAUONDI COLLEGE, 1 Lipson Street, Port Adelaide
Date: 11am, Monday 16th May 2011

At the information session, details of the pre-employment training programme and conditions of participation and involvement will be explained. Following the Information Session, Indigenous Australians interested in a retail traineeship with Woolworths will have an opportunity to register for one of 20 places on the 10 week pre-employment programme. All prospective participants will be required to notify their Job Services Australia Case Manager or School Officer and attend an interview following the information session.

After a successful interview, prospective employees will be invited to participate in the 10 week programme. If you are with a Job Services Australia provider we will work with you and your case manager to ensure enrolment in the programme is successful.
